PROCEDURES FOR MEMBERS BRINGING GRIEVANCES OR OTHER ISSUES BEFORE THE NLPOA EXECUTIVE BOARD

1. You must be a member of NLPOA for a minimum of ninety days.
2. You must be a member in good standing, with dues being current.
3. Submit your request in writing to the Board via the NLPOA Post Office Box, to:

Maricopa County Chapter
P. O. Box 1551
Phoenix, AZ 85001

4. Include all documentation with your written request, which supports your position or the matter for which you are seeking the support of the NLPOA.
5. If you are involved in a criminal matter, the NLPOA will take no position nor grant you a hearing to voice your defenses.
6. If you are involved in a matter that will be determined by your Agency's written policy, covered by State or Federal Laws governing your agency, or by Arizona POST, we may hear your matter, but choose not to become involved.
7. If you are invited to speak to the Board concerning your problem, your presentation should be concise and to the point. Your presentation should be no longer than ten minutes, and you should be prepared to answer any, and all questions put to you by the Board.
